Coach: Grades Cheersleader: Hydey
Assistant Coach: Brendan Runner: Mort

Now I know it's not footy season, but every year I see people moving names around the selection board to form the best panther footy team.

Backs: Brenton, Nuggety and hard and lets face it wont be playing a KPP any time soon.

Loz, a great team player this much was evident when the full forward at Box Hill (who happened to be a larger lad) sat on poor old Lozza's head. No complaints about it from Loz

Rogers, modern game is made for his sprightly build his footy IQ a huge asset for this backline

Half Backs: Wilbur, kicks the ball like a backman so pretty much the only spot I can put him.

Sean, A big strong man. Arrogant and a bit of prick. Common traits of all the great CHBs

Gurney, tall, skinny, soft, unaccountable & likes to look good. Typical of a back flanker

Centres: Potts, quick and skinny. Mild case of ADHD means he will run the wings all day

Doolz, school cpt for Balwyn. Fit and strong with the added flair of being a hawk fan

Speedy, way to skinny to be near a contest. Claims he is silky. Guess he needs to be picked

Half Fwds: Dave, massive man crush on Hird. Will only play this position.

Harry, has watched Dermie DVD's nightly since retirement and knows this position inside out

PC, Another blessed with the Hawks finishing ability. Strong and versatile a natural for this pozzie

Fwds: Dicko, most say he's past it. But this crafty customer could be like Cyrilesq... Delicious

Kann, once a great full forward for Manningham however very doubtful to be available for selection

Foll: One ball brigade picked solely on perceived fitness

GOVEYS' PANTHER CROSSWORD

Please Explain NBCCC

As loyal fans of the Gazette will know I strive for truth and accuracy with the news I break. However I was disgusted and appalled by the actions of the NBCCC last Saturday night with the club rigging the result of race 2.

Sources tells me, that a stand alone punter had $20,000 in funny money on a 5-1 shot, if it won he / she would have taken out the event. The race finished with a photo finish, and the result controversially going against the mystery punter. It was clearly an incorrect result

What further complicates the matter is the Chief Bookmaker's BFF (Best Friend Forever) Marcus Hyde conveniently cleaned up on that race and every other race subsequent.....

So NBCCC, on behalf of all paying customers that night Please Explain!

Player of the Month - Patrick Cummins

The current era of Australian cricket will be remembered by the sickening bias selectors have towards Victorian fast bowlers (Peter Siddle has playing 30 tests anyone). So a success story such as Patrick Cummins warms the heart. With this in mind I can happily award cummins with the Gazette Player of the month

Best Panther Nicknames

Daryl "Evog" Gove - Gove backwards

Jason "Harry" Kerr - Jeff Daniels lookalike. Harry is Jeff Daniels character from Dumb & Dumber

David "Ant" Speed - Ask me later

Geoff "Nudge" Allen - Would always hang out @ the Kann residence like Nudge from Hey Dad!

Darren "Casper" Ward - Disappears like a ghost at times

Julian "Doolz" Georgiou - Was his rapping name when he toured the US

DEBUTANTS DUCKS & DOUBLE HATRICKS

As magic captain, I can happily welcome 7 new players into the club. Sadly amongst those 7 new players 5 made ducks, took 0 wickets and went for plenty of runs off their bowling.....

However a highlight did occur against Marcellin, when the Strahan brothers and David Tso were part of a double hatrick when all bowled for a golden duck

VOX POP

After a 0 - 3 start, should Grades be sacked?

David Speed Burwood

Mark Gallichio North Balwyn

Marcus Hyde Blackburn

Yes he should.

The sight of him collecting a batting award is sickening.

Too early to tell, if Rusty captained them to a flag then that's proof anything's possible

Make the move now & replace him before he does any more damage. I say, replace him with the great David Wood!!
